1. When is the deadline to submit?

Short films that qualify between July 1, 2024 – September 30, 2024, must submit all required materials by Thursday, October 10, 2024, no later than 5pm PT.

2. Will my short film be ineligible if it screens at schools and/or film festivals?

Public screenings at schools and film festivals do not affect the film’s eligibility. Film festivals that utilize online screenings should have either a transactional paywall or a password-protected entry.

3. I plan to qualify my film with a theatrical run in a qualifying metro area. How do I know if the theater is a qualifying theater?

To be considered a commercial motion picture venue for Academy Awards® purposes, a theater must meet the following criteria:

- Regularly show new releases
- Charge admission
- Have regular non-specialized programming open to the general public
- Exploit and market films through regular listings and advertising
- Generally, run films for seven consecutive days, with multiple showings daily

4. How long do I have to qualify my short film?

You have two years from completion to qualify it.

5. What is the maximum running time to enter a short film competition?

The maximum runtime is 40 minutes.

6. The entry form only allows for two possible nominees but another person who worked on the film deserves an award.

A maximum of two persons may be designated as nominees, one of whom must be the credited director who exercised directorial control and the other of whom must have a director, producer, or writer credit. If a producer is named, that individual must have performed a major portion of the producing functions, in accordance with Academy producer criteria. If a producer is named, all individuals with a “producer” or “produced by” credit will automatically be vetted if the film reaches the semifinal round. The Short Films Branch Executive Committee will determine which producer, if any, is eligible to receive a nomination. In the unlikely event of a dispute, filmmakers may appeal the Committee’s decision. Companies or organized groups shall not receive nominations or awards. All final determinations of eligibility are made by the Short Films Branch Executive Committee.

7. Can short films enter other Oscar® categories?

Shorts are not eligible to compete in additional Oscar categories outside of their specific short film competition.

8. My film is a combination of live action and animation. Which category should I choose?

Please review the Live Action Short Film rules for the category definitions. We leave the decision up to the filmmakers as to which category is the best fit for their film. However, all final determinations of eligibility are made by the Short Films Branch Executive Committee.

9. I submitted my film last year, but since then I've added new material or re-edited. Can I submit it again?

No. We do not accept works in progress; the version submitted to the Academy must be the final and definitive version of your film. Entries must have the necessary clearances for commercial theatrical exhibition.

10. I submitted my film last year, but since then I've won an additional festival award. Can I submit it again?

No. The category rules only allow for a film to be submitted once for awards consideration.

11. My film was broadcast on television outside the U.S. before it opened theatrically in the U.S. Is it still eligible?

If the film received a theatrical release outside the U.S. before it was broadcast on television and if the television broadcast was only outside the U.S., the film could still be eligible. Please contact shortfilms@oscars.org

12. Are student films allowed to enter?

Student films are only eligible by winning an Oscar qualifying festival or Student Academy Award. Student films cannot qualify with a theatrical release.

13. How much does it cost to upload a short to the Academy Screening Room?
